

BANKER TWNING TAKEN TO PRISON AFTER LONG FIGHT

Jersey Financier, Tired of Being a Fugitive, Surrenders to Authorities.

(Special to The Evening World.)
FREEHOLD, N. J., Feb. 18.—Albert C. Twining, president of the defunct Monmouth Trust and Safe Deposit Company, of Asbury Park, convicted in 1903 of exhibiting false minutes of a directors' meeting and sentenced to six years in State prison, was released yesterday after the two past weeks when a final stay of sentence was refused him, surrendered to the Monmouth County officials and was taken to State prison today.

Twining was convicted of exhibiting false minutes of a directors' meeting to a bank examiner. He had been fighting his conviction ever since sentence was pronounced. When the last stay of sentence was asked for, two refusals ago he disappeared. A ride to show cause why Twining's bonds should not be forfeited was returnable here to-day.

David C. Cornell, former secretary of the defunct Monmouth Trust Company, who was indicted with Twining, is now serving a three-year sentence in State prison.
